

THE MATHESON TRUST
For the Study of Comparative Religion

Common Ground between Islam and Buddhism

May 2010, Bloomington, USA: His Holiness the Dalai Lama, joined by a panel of Muslim and Buddhist scholars, officially launches a book, Common Ground between Islam and Buddhism, which he described in his own foreword as 'pioneering'. Written by Dr Reza Shah-Kazemi, the book is the result of collaboration between HRH Prince Ghazi bin Muhammad of Jordan and His Holiness the Dalai Lama, who agreed that it was vital for the adherents of the two global traditions to become better acquainted with each other's basic doctrines, and to build bridges of understanding and compassion between them.

April 2014, London: The Matheson Trust hosts the premiere of the documentary directed by Mustafa Gouverneur to register this initiative, followed by a question and answer session with Reverend Prof. Kemmyo Taira Sato and Dr Reza Shah-Kazemi.

This event will be a unique opportunity to ask questions on this historic initiative.

Friday, April 4th, 2014
7:00 to 8:30pm
Bloomsbury Suite, Friends House
173 Euston Road, London, NW1 2BJ
Entry: £10 (concessions £5)

For more information: <http://themathesontrust.org/library/islam-buddhism-event>
To register: info@themathesontrust.org

